

Right-to-Request Teacher Qualifications Letter

August 15, 2023

Dear Harambee Parents:

As a parent/guardian of a student attending a school that is receiving Federal Title I dollars, you have the right to know the professional qualifications of the teacher(s) and instructional paraprofessional(s) who instruct your child.

At any time, you may ask:

- ✓ Whether the teacher met state qualifications and certification requirements for the grade level and subject he/she is teaching,
- ✓ Whether the teacher received an emergency or conditional certificate through which state qualifications were waived, and
- ✓ What undergraduate or graduate degrees the teacher holds, including
  - graduate certificates and additional degrees, and major(s) or area(s) of
  - concentration.

You may also ask whether your child receives help from a paraprofessional. If your child receives this assistance, we can provide you with information about the paraprofessional's qualifications.

The Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) which was signed into law in December 2015 and reauthorizes the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1956 (ESEA) includes additional right to know requests. At any time, parents and family members can request:

- ✓ Information on policies regarding student participation in assessments and procedures for opting out, and
- ✓ Information on required assessments that include:
  - subject matter tested,
  - purpose of the test,
  - source of the requirement (if applicable),
  - amount of time it takes students to complete the test, and
  - time and format of disseminating results.

Our staff is committed to helping your child develop the academic knowledge and critical thinking he/she needs to succeed in school and beyond. That commitment includes making sure that teachers and paraprofessionals meet applicable Pennsylvania state requirements. If you have any questions, please contact our main office @ 215-472-8770 ext. 300. Or email: info@histcs.org

We look forward to this school year, and together we will make a difference in your child's life.

Sincerely,
Gregory Shannon
CEO
